From Saturday October 11. to Tuesday October 14. 1712.

Windsor, October 12.

THE following Addreſſes were ſent up by the Earl of Findlater and Seafield, and preſented to Her Majeſty by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of Peace, and Freeholders of the Shire of Bamff.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly preſume to approach Your Sacred Majeſty, with our moſt dutiful and grateful Acknowledgments of the repeated Teſtimonies of Your Majeſty's Princely Care and Concern for the Happineſs of Your Subjects; and particularly, for the late Inſtance of Your Majeſty's moſt gracious Condeſcenſion, in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms on which a ſafe and honourable Peace may be obtained, tho' it be Your undoubted Prerogative to make Peace and War.

Nothing but the Bleſſing of God upon Your indefatigable Watchfulneſs, with a wiſe and diligent Miniſtry, could have brought us ſuch a near View of a Peace, ſo honourable and advantageous to Great Britain, juſt to Your Allies, and beneficial to Trade: And as a ſure Pledge of the ſame, we do with joyful Hearts, ſee Your Majeſty poſſeſt of that Important Fort of Dunkirk; and we do already begin to find the happy Effects thereof, and of the Care Your Majeſty has taken of ſecuring our Trade, by the ſuſpenſion of Hoſtilities at Sea, as well as at Land, 'till Your Majeſty have time to conclude the Peace.

We further beg leave humbly to return Your Majeſty our hearty Thanks for the Toleration, now eſtabliſhed by Law, for Liberty of Conſcience to thoſe of the Epiſcopal Perſuaſion within this part of Great Britain.

May Your Majeſty long live to ſee a grateful People bleſſing God and Your Majeſty in the quiet Enjoyment of theſe Comforts, which Your Majeſty, in Your great Wiſdom, has procured for them. We are, with great ſubmiſſion, may it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, moſt faithful, moſt loyal, and moſt obedient Subjects and Servants.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Conſtable, Bailiffs, and Town-Council of the Burgh of Cullen, in the County of Bamff.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects beg leave, with all ſubmiſſion, to return our moſt hearty and thankful Acknowledgments for the great Benefits and Advantages we enjoy, under Your Majeſty's moſt glorious and auſpicious Reign: And particularly, for Your Majeſty's late Condeſcenſion in communicating to Your People, the Terms on which a Peace may be obtained. And it is with the greateſt Satisfaction, that we behold Your Majeſty holding the Ballance of Power in Your Royal Hands, and in a capacity to procure a ſafe and honourable Peace, highly advantageous to Your own Kingdoms, and juſt and ſecure for Your Allies. Nor can we any longer doubt of the Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Negotiations, ſince, as a ſure Pledge thereof, we do already ſee Your Majeſty poſſeſs'd of that important Fort of Dunkirk; and that by Your great Wiſdom and Conſtancy, and the wiſe and prudent Adminiſtration of Your Miniſtry, we already enjoy a Ceſſation of all Hoſtilities by Sea as well as by Land.

May God long preſerve Your Majeſty, and enable You to finiſh this great Work, and to protect theſe Your Dominions, and to maintain the Proteſtant Intereſt both at Home and Abroad; for we ſhall reckon it to be our Duty to ſupport and defend Your Majeſty's Perſon, and juſt Title to the Crown and Government, againſt all Your Enemies. We are with the greateſt ſubmiſſion, may it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, moſt faithful, moſt loyal and moſt obedient Subjects and Servants.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Bailiffs, Town Council and Community of the Burgh of Bamff, in North Britain.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects beg leave, with the utmoſt Senſe of Gratitude, humbly to acknowledge Your Majeſty's great Condeſcenſion, in communicating to Your Parliament, the Terms on which a Peace may be made.

It is an infinite Satisfaction to us, that after the Calamities of a long and expenſive War, we have ſuch a near Proſpect of a Peace, ſo honourable and advantageous to Great Britain, juſt to Your Allies, and beneficial to Trade, which nothing but the Bleſſing of God upon Your Majeſty's Princely Care, and the diligent Application of Your wiſe and prudent Miniſtry, could have ſo ſoon brought to paſs; and as a ſure Pledge of the ſame, with joyful Hearts, we ſee Your Majeſty poſſeſt of that important Fort of Dunkirk.

May God Almighty long preſerve Your Majeſty to Reign over us, and enable You to finiſh and compleat this great Negotiation, which is ſo much wanted and deſired by Your Majeſty's Subjects; and that Your Majeſty may always be bleſt with Succeſs againſt Your Enemies both at Home and Abroad, ſhall be the conſtant Prayer of, may it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt loyal, moſt obedient, moſt dutiful Subjects and Servants.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Copenhagen, October 8. N. S. Yeſterday at Noon the Daniſh Fleet ſet ſail from the Gulph of Kiog, and was out of ſight of the Coaſt before the Evening, but the Wind having been againſt them ever ſince, it is thought they are not got far at Sea. Four Ships of the Province of Holland, bound homewards from Dantzick, and laden with Corn, have been lately carried up to Grypſwalde. The Dutch Envoy's Secretary here having complained of this Injury to the King's Miniſters, he has been anſwered, That it was done by Order of the Czar, who being in great want of Corn for the Subſiſtance of his Troops in Pomerania, found himſelf under a neceſſity of making uſe of this Supply, but that he would pay for what he had taken.

Berlin, October 11. N. S. The Czar arrived here late this Evening, he alighted at Count Golofkin his Envoy's Houſe, where he lodges, and having ſtay'd there a little while to refreſh himſelf, he went to viſit the King. It is ſaid he will continue in this Place a Day or two, and then proceed on his Journey to Carlsbad, the deſign of making a Deſcent into the Iſle of Rugen being now laid aſide. Monſieur Montargues, Quarter-Maſter General of his Majeſty's Forces, came here ſome time ago with the Repartition of the Winter Quarters for the Pruſſian Troops in Flanders, and on the 6th he ſet out again, in order to return thither.

Hannover, Octob. 14. N. S. The Elector and all the Court ſet out Yeſterday for Gohre, where they intend to ſtay as long as the Seaſon laſts for Stag-hunting. We have received advice from ſeveral Parts, that the Daniſh Fleet has taken and burnt ſome of the Swediſh Tranſports; but the two Parties differ very much in their Accounts of that Matter. The Swedes give out their Loſs was only of ten or twelve Ships, but the Danes ſay, it amounts to Seventy, and that their Enemies are not in a Condition to make another Tranſport. On the other ſide, the Count de Steinbock talks of forming an Army of 18 or 20000 Men, with the Troops he has lately received, join'd to the Garriſons of Rugen and Stralſund, that he will act upon the Offenſive; but it is thought he will hardly run that hazard; and as the Czar is reſolved to defer his Journy no longer, and intends to go immediately by Berlin to Carlsbad, we look on the Campaign to be in a manner ended in thoſe Parts.

Utrecht, Octob. 18. N. S. His Excellency the Earl of Strafford ſet out from hence on the 16th for the Hague, from whence he intends to proceed towards Great Britain. The ſame Day Count Tarnuca and Don Lewis d'Alcuna, the King of Portugal's Miniſters, were in Conference with the Lord Privy Seal upon ſome new Orders from their Court, and this Morning they, together with the Plenipotentaries of France, were at his Lordſhip's Houſe. Monſieur Hymmen, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Pruſſia to the States General, has been here lately, and after having a Conference with the Earl of Strafford, he returned to his Poſt at the Hague. Yeſterday the Miniſters of the Allies met in the Town-houſe, as uſual, and agreed to demand the Exemption of Exciſe, which has not yet been perfectly ſettled by the Magiſtrates of this Town.
